EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS TRAINED. TRUSTED. TALENTED.

You've found your soulmate, you've set your wedding date and you've found your venue. Now you need to plan your wedding reception. What would a reception be without music and entertainment?

If you've never planned a wedding reception or reserved a DJ before, what should you look for? What are the things that an entertainment company should provide so that you get more than just a DJ playing music? How do you make sure you get the right type of music and entertainment, tailored specifically to you, your guests, and your event?

Midwest Sound is one of the few companies serving the eastern Wisconsin, Milwaukee, and greater Madison area that specializes in wedding reception entertainment. Over our nearly 40 years in business, our clients have shared with us the main characteristics that they look for when reserving a wedding entertainment company.

Why You Need An Entertainment Specialist BEFORE HIRING US, OUR CLIENTS OFTEN ASK US THE SAME TWO QUESTIONS:

1. Can't we get the same type of DJ for much less on Craigslist or by letting a family friend handle the entertainment?
2. How is Midwest Sound any different than all of the other "wedding companies" in the area?

The Short Answer To These Is...

- 1) No, you can't get the same type of reception quality and reliability via family friends or Craigslist.
- 2) We are the only company that specializes in wedding entertainment, while most other companies treat reception entertainment as just one small part of their operation. More detailed information is on our website.
